

National Simultaneous Storytime 2026 will be held on Wednesday, 27 May 2026, at 11:00 pm. The selected book is Luna Roo: the Kangaroo Baller by Adam Jackson and Adrian Lloyd, illustrated by Jake Minton, a story about football, teamwork, and confidence. Millions of children nationwide will share this reading experience simultaneously. Millions of children, parents, teachers, and library lovers across Australia and beyond will come together to read Luna Roo at the same time — celebrating the joy of reading, storytelling and connection. The story follows the spirited kangaroo Luna and her friends as they chase their football dreams across the outback, blending action, teamwork and fun to inspire young readers. Luna Roo was selected from 84 submissions from publishers around the country.

"If you don't like to read, you haven't found the right book"
J.K. Rowling

Hoopla Service Update

The Library has discontinued its subscription to the Hoopla Digital service.

Any items that you have on loan or reserved will remain available.

Patrons can continue to enjoy a wide range of digital books, audiobooks, and more by using the BorrowBox or Indyreads platforms.

2nd Wednesday of each month from 1:30pm - 3:30pm.

Edward River Library App

The new Edward River Library app lets you carry your library card on your phone and manage loans. The Libero Discovery app is a, mobile-friendly, single-search interface that integrates physical and digital library collections. It allows borrowers to search, refine, and reserve items—including integrated eContent from providers like BorrowBox and Indyreads—while enabling 24/7 access to library services.

With the app you can:

- Use your digital library card when borrowing.
- Search the catalogue and place reserves.
- Check due dates and renew loans.
- Scan a book's ISBN before you buy to see if the library has a copy you can borrow.
- Review a book.
- Keep up to date with library events.

Link family accounts to manage your child's loans in one place.

You can also easily click through to view what's on at our libraries and check branch opening hours. Download the 'Edward River Library' app from the App Store or Google Play, then log in with your library member number and password and PIN to get started.

The library will be holding library app information sessions on Thursday 14th & Thursday 21st of May at 10:30am.

Come along and learn about the new library app or book in for a 1 on 1 session during the library's Tech Help Thursdays.

Tech Help with Switched On

Got tech questions? Come have a yarn with us. We're hosting Tech Talk with Switched On at the Edward River Library.

Thursday 21st May
1:30pm–2:30pm

The BorrowBox title of the month is the eBook of Lyrebird by Jane Caro. A mystery set in the Australian bush, Lyrebird is the second novel from media identity Jane Caro.

Lyrebirds are brilliant mimics, so if they mimic a woman screaming in terror and begging for her life, they have witnessed a crime. But how does a young, hung over PHD student and a wet behind the ears new detective, convince anyone that a native bird can be a reliable witness to a murder, especially when there is no body and no missing person?

And what happens when they turn out to be right?

Chat with a SETS worker

We're excited to let you know that a SETS (Settlement Engagement and Transition Support) worker will now be available on the first Wednesday of every month at the Deniliquin Library.

The SETS program supports migrants and refugees who have been in Australia less than five years, helping individuals and families to settle into life in the local community.

When: First Wednesday of each month

Time: 10am - 2pm

Where: Edward River Library: 55 Napier St, Deniliquin
