

DISCLOSURE LOG TABLE

Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009

Section 25 of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (NSW) (GIPA Act) requires agencies to keep a disclosure log as part of their mandatory open access information. The disclosure log publishes details of information released in response to access applications that the agency considers may be of interest to other members of the public. Each NSW government agency must publish a disclosure log on its website.[1] Section 26 of the GIPA Act requires agencies to record the following set out information about each access application in the disclosure log.
